BRIEF HISTORY OF PENTECOST UNIVERSITY

Pentecost University (PU) traces its history to the year 1954 when The Church of Pentecost started a World Mission Bible College (WMBC). In February 1972, WMBC which had not been active for a long time was re-started as Pentecost Bible Centre (PBC) at the McKeown Temple in Kumasi, with an initial enrollment of five. Rev. David Mills was the first Principal. Rev James McKeown, founder of The Church of Pentecost (COP), and Rev Joseph Egyir-Paintsil, the General Secretary, performed the opening ceremony. The Centre was closed in 1975, and was reopened at New Abossey Okai, Accra, in 1983.

In 1984, the Pentecost Bible Centre moved from Kumasi to Madina-Accra. Rev. Martinson K. Yeboah was the first Dean of Students for PBC, serving from 1984 to 1986. Following Rev. M.K Yeboah as Dean of Students were Rev. L. A. Nyarko (1986-1989), Rev. Emmanuel Parker (1989-1992), Rev. Samuel Opoku-Adipah (1992-1999), Rev. Kwame Blankson (1999-2003) and Rev. Daniel O. Walker (2003-2005 & 2010-2016), Rev. Joshua Yirenkyi Smart (2005-2010), Rev. Paul Danso (2016-2020) and Rev. Jonathan Kofie (2020-date). The position of Director of Studies, now abolished, was held by Rev. Dr. Amponsah-Kuffour (1992-2003).

Rev. Lionel Currie took over from Rev. David Mills as Principal of PBC in 1984 until 1992 when Rev. John Waller succeeded him. Rev. Michael M. Kopah took over from Rev. Waller as the first African Principal of the re-designated Pentecost Bible College (PBC) from 1997 to 2002.

In March 2003, the Pentecost Bible College was upgraded to a University College. His Excellency, Mr. J.A. Kufuor, the then President of the Republic of Ghana, inaugurated the Pentecost University College on May 22, 2003, during the Church's 34th Session of the General Council Meetings held at the University's Sowutuom Campus, under the Chairmanship of Rev Dr. M. K. Ntumy. The University College was granted institutional accreditation by the National Accreditation Board (NAB) in November 2004.

Aps. Prof. Opoku Onyinah became the first Rector from 2003-2008 and Rev. Aps. Prof. Peter Ohene Kyei became the second Rector from 2008 -2016. Rev. Aps. Dr. Daniel Okyere Walker served as the third Rector from 2016 to 2020. Aps. Prof. Kwabena Agyapong Kodua is the current Vice-Chancellor of the University.

It must be noted that Elder Prof. Kwame Boasiako Omane-Antwi has served as the Vice-Rector and now as the Pro-Vice Chancellor of the University from 2006 to date. The first registrar for PU was Elder Dr. Gibson Annor Antwi. He served from 2003 – 2016 when Elder Foster Amoani, the current registrar took over from him from 2016 till date.

The Pentecost University Council, first headed by Elder Dr. Paul Awua, was inducted on May 6, 2004 at the 10th Session of the Extraordinary Council Meeting of the Church of Pentecost held at the University's Sowutuom campus. He was succeeded by Her Ladyship Mrs. Elizabeth Ankumah who served from 2012 to 2020. Currently, the Council is under the Chairmanship of Rev. Prof. Otoo Ellis.

Through hard work, commitment and dedication to duty on the part of faculty, staff and students, the Pentecost University College became a fully-fledged chartered University on 1 June 2020 after President Akuffo Addo presented the charter certificate to the University on 28th May 2020 at the Jubilee House in Accra. Pentecost University is therefore among the few private universities in Ghana to become a chartered university.
